Foreword

From the little acorn planted on the hilltop in 1903, Western Michigan College has emerged as an imposing young oak, worthy of present pride and full of promise for the future. It is the task of the Brown and Gold Yearbook to keep pace with the annual growth of the college's tree of knowledge, recording each new branch as it sprouts and enlarges, and memorializing the various campus activities year after year.

Through these pages, then, will unfold the story of our college, constant, yet changing through the days and seasons. Here are the scholastic pursuits, activities, organizations, newborn and timehonored. Here are the people; the students and administration. Here is a year in the life and growth of Western. One year in many past and yet to come in the history of the Bronco family tree; yet a year of many phases, shades and aspects.

The Brown and Gold gives you Western, 1956

In Memoriam

During the past year, death took from our campus four outstanding members of the faculty. They were Carl R. Cooper, alumni and guidance; Robert J. Eldridge, chemistry; Edwin S. Fox, physics; and Roy E. Joyce, biology. In their memory, in recognition of their years of dedication to service through Western Michigan College, this yearbook is dedicated.

Administration

President

I wish to commend the staff of the Brown and Gold for their superb production of the 1956 edition. Each year some excellent and unique ideas appear which are stimulating and interesting. You may be proud of the work you have done. To those of you who have participated in the production of this annual, I extend my sincere congratulations.

Paul V. Sangren
President

Since his appointment as chief executive officer of Western in 1936, Dr. Paul V. Sangren has worked unceasingly to keep the college in step with its rapidly growing enrollment. He is the final authority, and represents Western in its various public relations.

VICE PRESIDENT In 1945, Dr. Wynand Wichers came from presidency of Hope College to the new office of vice president of Western. Among his responsibilities are the supervision and improvement of the faculty and instruction, and, with the Educational Policies Committee, revision of curricular offerings, practices and policies.

The administration of Western has multiplied proportionately with its enrollment. From a staff of two, President Waldo and his secretary, plus a director of the campus school, it has grown to include 15 busy people. Miss Roxanne Steele, the secretary, was also registrar of the college. As president, Waldo's job at that time was a very personal one in relation to the students. The first Dean of Women came in 1916, the first Dean of Men in 1925. In 1934, the office of Dean of Administration was initiated, and Dr. Sangren was appointed to the position. When Sangren became president in 1936, at the end of a three year battle for the survival of the school, he created new offices and redistributed duties.

ADMINISTRATION

DEAN OF ADMINISTRATION-REGISTRAR

Mr. Clayton Maus assists the President in the areas of supervision of student class programs and activities, enrollment procedures, and student loans.

DEAN OF WOMEN Dr. Elizabeth Lichty is the special friend of every woman on campus, finding jobs, helping them adjust to college life, supervising housing, and taking time to talk with any student who needs a sympathetic ear.

DEAN OF MEN J. Towner Smith supervises men's housing, keeps personal files on all the men on campus, and knows them all much better than usually suspected.

ADMINISTRATION

COMPTROLLER Mr. Cornelius McDonald is the man who pays the bills. Among his duties are keeping the financial records of the administration, and auditing the books of all the organizations on campus.

ASSISTANT REGISTRAR Dr. Keith Smith is the new recorder of grades, supervisor of official blanks, forms and lists.

DIRECTOR OF PLACEMENT AND ALUMNI RELATIONS When Mr. Vern Mabie took the position he now holds, he visited every school within driving distance to acquaint himself with the conditions. He takes the same care in knowing those his office serves, and such conscientious work has resulted in satisfied employers and graduates.

DIRECTOR OF STUDENT PERSONNEL AND GUIDANCE Dr. George H. Hilliard directs the counseling program of the undergraduates on their courses of study, keeps student personnel records, and is himself a friendly informed guide when general counseling is needed.

DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE DIVISION AND SUMMER SESSION Dr. George Malinson works with the various departments in choosing the graduate and summer courses offered, supervises the admission of graduate students, and recommends candidates for Master's Degrees.

DIRECTOR OF VOCATIONAL EDUCATION Dr. George Kohrman has under his supervision not only the usual degree candidates, but in addition, students enrolled in the college for non-degree work in the Vocational and Practical Arts Division.

ADMINISTRATION

DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION Acceptance of students into the education field, and supervising the teacher training program are among the responsibilities of Dr. James Griggs.

DIRECTOR OF ADULT EDUCATION AND EXTENSION Mr. Otto Yntema supervises the extension and correspondence courses from the ad building penthouse, assisted by Associate Director Leonard Gernant, who is also Dean of the Chapel.

Western Michigan College is but one of the hundreds of colleges and universities throughout the country possessing such a vital military organization as the Reserve Officer Training Corps. Established in 1950 on our campus, it has grown to be one of the leading and most respected organizations at Western.

Two thousand persons witnessed the annual review of more than 700 cadets as they paraded before Major General Charles L. Dasher in Waldo Stadium. In the reviewing stand with the General were Brigadier General B. P. Johnson, Mayor Glenn S. Allen, Jr., officials of Western Michigan College and the inspecting officers. The annual review is one of the big military events of the year because the regiment parades as a unit, and the public is given the opportunity to view the performance of the future Army officers.

PERSHING RIFLES

The Pershing Rifles is a branch of the National Society of Pershing Rifles which is dedicated to the promotion and development of interest in the basic course of ROTC. As a military drill team the Pershing Rifles provide the campus with a squad for functions on the campus, as well as for competition against similar teams of other colleges and universities. Their outstanding records in competition demonstrate the fulfillment of their aims for achieving utmost efficiency.

SUMMER CAMP

General review at ROTC summer camp,
Fort Campbell, Kentucky.

Three of the boys sample some of that famous army 'C ration' during chow time,
Fort Lee.

Each year summer camp offers the potential officer extensive opportunity to put the instruction of the regular school year into realistic practice. The camp is attended by cadets in their junior year. The student receives practical experience in the performance of tactical, technical, and administrative duties in the field with special emphasis on student leadership. But it is not all work and no play. The trainees are provided extensive recreational facilities which make their stay at summer camp a well rounded memorable experience. Many life-long friendships are formed by the companionships experienced here.

Baseball and softball prove to be one of the more popular pastimes. Here, some of the Fort Lee trainees enjoy a friendly game
during a lull in training exercises.

Lt. Col. Virlyn Y. Jones

The responsibility for preparing students for future leadership in the United States Army lies in the capable hands of the Professor of Military Science and Tactic, Lt. Col. Virlyn Jones. His able leadership and guidance with the assistance of trained officers and enlisted men gives the ROTC student a well-rounded military background.

The social highlight of the ROTC year is the annual Military Ball. A queen and court is chosen, officers and students don their dress uniforms with highly polished buttons, and an evening of dancing and fun is enjoyed by all.

Major McNeil presents the ROTC Queen's Trophy to Lura Sullivan Hanshu, reigning queen for the 1955 Ball.

Dormitories

Davis Hall, modernistic treatment of brick and glass with an interior to top all interiors by Miss Lydia Siedschlag.

DAVIS

Davis Hall, home for 350 Western coeds, was dedicated during Homecoming of 1954 in the memory of the late Dean of Women, Mrs. Bertha M. Davis. Though one of our newest dorms, it has taken its place in the social realm of the west campus. Each spring the girls of Davis hold a formal, this year in conjunction with Zimmerman. The rest of the year is packed with teas and ciders, open houses and exchange dinners with the Burnham Halls.

Officers for this term were: Barbara Tunis, president; Barbara Barnes, first vice-president; Jo Stolsteimer, second vice-president; Mary Alice Tabor, secretary; and Ardis Lyon, treasurer . . . all under the capable guidance of house mother Mrs. Helen Inman assisted by Miss Lola Haler.

Open House means entertainment, so the Davis girls drummed up a skit.

Row 2: Barbara Jo Lillie, Eileen Ridolph, Lola Haller, Joanna Barinotti, Mrs. Helen Inman, Marilyn Hamilton, Ann Rush, Mary Ann Knoohuizen, Margo Reynolds

Not Present: Madah Mack

The pangs of being a freshman turned into jollity for the youngsters of Davis . . . here attending a crickett's last rights.

Foods on! That was the cry and the men of the Burnham Halls swarmed down the hill to take advantage of the exchange dinner.

DRAPER

Row 2— Jen Edwards, Connie Wilhelm, Evelyn Thomas, Beatrice Dill, Betty Jarrette, Mrs. Lucille Yost, Janet Hughes, Barbara Lundquist, Gloria Stanik.

Row 3— Audrey Weed, Carol Brown, Carol Stein, Glenda LaVanway, Betty Burns, Carol Beggs, Marilyn Case, Jane Reamer, Joyce Brenner, Patricia Wolpert.

There comes a time in every coed's life when they're called on to put on a show . . . and here, with heart, soul, and sailor suits, Draperites perform.

Homecoming, secret plans, hours of work and the girls of Draper came up with this entry for the parade.

Draper Hall for Women, the home of many memories and home for over 350 coeds, joins Siedschlag Hall to make one of the largest buildings on the west campus.

Draper Hall for Women, located on the west campus, shares the same roof as its sister dormitory, Siedschlag Hall. Dedicated in the fall of 1950 to the memory of Mrs. Blanch Draper, it serves as home for over 350 coeds.

Among the activities sponsored by the girls of Draper, the spring formal rates highest. Other functions consist of pajama parties, exchange dinners, mixers, coffees and a faculty dinner.

Officers for this year have been Jane Reamer, president; Kay Golden, first vice-president; Sue Howes, second vice-president; Ann Beth, secretary; and Bonnie Wheeler, treasurer. Housemother Mrs. Lucille Yost is assisted by Miss Betty Jarrette.

Presidents Harriet Day and Jane Reamer, past and present.

SIEDSCHLAG

Situated on the new campus directly across from the president's home stands Siedschlag Hall for Women . . . a tribute to Miss Lydia Siedschlag, past head of our art department and the decorator responsible for the sumptuous interiors of Western's buildings.

Among the activities sponsored by the girls of this dormitory are found the usual coffees, mixers, exchange dinners and their spring formal with their sister dorm, Draper.

Open House called for a skit and so the women of Siedschlag skitted.

Siedschlag Hall, a tribute to the artistic skills of Lydia Siedschlag, home for Western coeds.

 Row 2—Jo Trumble, Fae Neidlinger, Pearl Rossinck, Mrs. Chapman, Kathy Lahr, Shirley Briggs, Charlotte Folks, Shirley Lemke, Sue Pearson
 Row 3—Martha Varney, Nancy Noreen, Rhoda Lindman, Nancy Miller, Peg Williamson, Lu Howe, Mary Ann Schaller

Support for the Freshman Carnival came from the girls of Siedschlag in the form of this booth.

Officers for this year were Betty Evans, president; Charlotte Folks, first vice-president; Grace Kerr, second vice-president; Nancy Noreen, secretary; and Rhoda Landman, treasurer. Mrs. Katherine Chapman was their house mother, being assisted by Miss Joyce Rhoda.

The ladies of Zimmerman formed a chorus line to entertain their open house guests.

ZIMMERMAN

 Row 2—Carol Heym, Mavis Berry, Janece Julian, Margie Cantalupo, Mrs. Hinkle, Beverley Black, Shirley Turner, Anita Walsh, Nancy Auritt, Mary Jo McCabe.
 Row 3—Jean Nemethy, Lauri Schwartz, Sylvia Lovatt, Barbara Ritchie

Dedicated during Homecoming in 1955, Zimmerman Hall for Women stands as the most recent addition to Western's rapidly expanding West Campus. It's exterior is a modern brick and glass expanse housing a beautiful, ultra-modern interior. One of the many desirable features of the Hall is its arrangement of rooms which are in suites of two with a common bath between.

Activities at Zimmerman include open house, formal dances and pajama parties, to mention a few from their well-rounded social program.

Officers for the year were Janece Julian, President; Mavis Berry, First Vice President; Shirley Turner, Second Vice President; Suzanne Slimon, Secretary, Mary Jo McCabe, Treasurer. Housemother was Mrs. Mabel Hinkle, and Assistant Housemother was Miss Beverly Black.

No place like home . . . so true when spoken of Zimmerman Hall

Zimmerman Hall, the newest dormitory for women on the West campus . . . named for the late Elizabeth Zimmerman, head of the language department.

The remaining dormitory for women on the east campus, Spindler Hall hovers over the English Hall and Waldo Stadium.

SPINDLER

Row 1—Pat Stevens, Beverly Blair, Gayle Bendetto, Arlene Ramsey, Marjorie Gerke, Mary Lynn Thompson

Row 2—Ann West, Sally Wanemacher, Pat Galvin, Mrs. Edith Lake, Pat Schnepf, Nancy Walker, Karen Bramer

Row 3—Evelyn Fluker, Paula Sager, Tanya Hoeft, Kay Montgomery, Lorna Hays, Glenda Peck, Barbara Scherer, Joan Randall, Judy Taack, Pat Hurley, Hazel Beckwith

Homecoming's theme, "World of Fantasy," meant rocket ships to Spindler.

Patrons of the Union were entertained by the freshmen ladies of Spindler

There's no place like home — but Lavina Spindler Hall comes pretty close to being just that. Informal PJ parties, after-dinner coffees, and plain, old fashioned gab sessions help to make the girls feel right at home.

Some of the more important events occurring at Spindler Hall this year were the open house, South Pacific; the annual Dormitory Formal; the Christmas and Easter breakfasts; faculty teas; and an exploration faith speaker. The hustle and bustle of planning and making the homecoming float and preparing the alumnae coffee were also occasions to be remembered.

Officers for this east campus residence hall, dedicated in the fall of 1940 and housing about 250 women, were Sally Wanenmacher, President; Ann West, First Vice President; Pat Schnepf, Second Vice President; Karen Bramer, Secretary; and Nancy Walker, Treasurer. Mrs. Edith Lake again served as Director, and Miss Patricia Galvin served as Assistant Director.

The girls divided up into committees and sponsored a mixer . . . just for fun.

ERNEST BURNHAM

Ernest Burnham Hall, home for over three hundred men of Western, stands as a monument to its namesake, Ernest Burnham.

Ernest Burnham Hall, along with its brother dormitory Smith Burnham, is one of the newer housing units for men at Western Michigan College. Located on the west campus, it was completed and dedicated in 1949 and houses approximately 300 men.

Among the many pleasant events these men will remember are the exchange dinners with Draper, Siedschlag, Davis and Zimmerman Halls; stag parties and smokers; a talent show; the annual parent open house; faculty guest dinners; and the annual Festival of Knights dance held in March, co-sponsored with Smith Burnham men; they took second place this year in the Homecoming display!

Elected to office for Ernest Burnham Hall this year were Dave Walbridge, President; Don Burk-lund, Vice-President; Harold Westman, Treasurer; Hugh Matson, Recording Secretary; John McKenzie, Corresponding Secretary. Dr. and Mrs. Louis Govatos served as directors and Dr. Don Ackerman and Mr. James Boynton served as counselors.

The Hall was filled to capacity for its annual formal. Here, weary party-goers take a break in the lounge.

Here, freshman carry out their beanie court sentences, peanut pushing.

Another monument, this being the Smith Burnham Hall for men . . . named in honor of the long-time head of the history department, Smith Burnham.

Smith Burnham Hall was dedicated, as was its brother, in 1949, honoring the one time head of Western's History Department. Situated on the West Campus, it serves as home for approximately 300 men.

Pleasant memories of dormitory life are assured the men of Smith Burnham with such events as their smokers and their exchange dinners with the young women of Draper, Siedschlag, Davis, and Zimmerman. Other high-lights of the year are their faculty guest dinners, the annual parent openhouse and above all, the "Festival of Knights" dance held in conjunction with the men of Ernest Burnham Hall.

Holding office for the dorm this year were: John Ryor, president; Frank Bulgarella, vice-president; Ron Kasher, recording secretary; Mike Mlsna, corresponding secretary; and Don Dezelsky, treasurer. The counselors were Herb Jones and Carl Sattlemair with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Potter as directors.

Men of Smith Burnham treated their young ladies to a dance.

WALWOOD HALL

West Campus came to the East Campus for Walwood's formal.

"Variety is the spice of life" we are told, and if this holds true, Walwood Hall must be a very interesting place. The Hall has served as a dormitory for both men and women students since its completion in 1938. At present, it is being used to house men students. Adjoining the Union, it offers a choice location for those who like recreation close at hand.

The Walwood social program includes the annual dance, open house, smokers, and other pleasant functions designed to bring the students and their college closer together.

Officers for the year were: Jare Klein, President, Pat Dawson, Vice President, Bob Johnson, Secretary, and Marsh Overstedt, Treasurer. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gabel.

VANDERCOOK

Vandercook Hall, home for two hundred men, crowns the crest of Oakland hill.

The men who live in Vandercook Hall take much pride in the "homey" and friendly atmosphere of their dormitory. This dormitory was built in 1939 and over 200 men call it home each year. Vandercook Hall really differs from the other male residence halls in that it has no cafeteria facilities; a snack bar serves the in-between snack needs instead.

The memorable evening get-togethers and dormitory smokers are just as much a part of Vandercook's social life as is their closed formal, "Teepee Tango."

This year, the men of Vandercook went out and captured another prize for their homecoming lawn display which featured a modern version of Davy Crockett and the bear he killed. This is proof that the Vandercook men stick together and accomplish quite a bit with their cooperative spirit and attitude.

John Scudder was elected president this year with James Ward as his vice-president. Duane Brickner served as secretary. Dick Bryant and Charles Starring served as counselors with Dr. and Mrs. Robert Bowers as residence directors.

The men of Vandercook never miss an opportunity to display their school spirit. Here, their entry in the annual Show Carnival.

— RESIDENCE HALLS ASSOCIATION

The Residence Halls Association is the second largest organization on the Western Michigan College Campus as far as membership is concerned. Founded in March 1955, it is just in its infancy, but it has already shown the power and benefits of a previously unorganized group of students. Its membership includes every person who lives in a Residence Hall. Each Hall has three representatives on the Inter-Residence Hall Council.

The purpose of the Association is to promote social, political, cultural, and academic co-operation among the Halls and thus bring the students closer together through active participation in a common organization. Activities of the year include the Halloween Dance, All Campus Christian Caroling, Christmas Dance, Spring Dance, Co-ordinated mixers and Exchange dinners.

Officers for the year were John H. Frazer, Pres.; Charley Link, Treas.; Arlene Ramsey, Vice Pres.; Ann Powell, Sec.; Mrs. Bowers and Dr. Ackerman, sponsors.

Eyes to the future! The Residence Halls Association hopes to sponsor student station WIDR.

Clever themes, colorful decor and fun seeking students combine to make dances sponsored by RHA success. Here, capers are cut at the "Witches Whirl" . . .

with further rug cutting at the semi-formal, "Winter Fantasy."

"Accomplishment stems from friendship and unity."

STUDENT ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE —

The Student Activities Committee is made up of representatives from Panhellenic Council, Student Council, Inter-Fraternity Council, Associated Women Students, Independents, and Men's Union as well as six members of the faculty. Its main function is to help organizations iron out their problems. This committee also has the power to receive charters of new groups and to help establish them on campus. Perhaps the two largest efforts on the part of the SAC are the Brown and Gold yearbook and the weekly Herald.

MEN'S STUDENT COURT

To maintain a standard of conduct, it is often necessary to use pressure where honor may be slipping. Founded in September of 1954, the Men's Judicial Board directs its efforts to replacing this honor in those who, by their actions, show they have need of it. The Board handles all disciplinary cases of male students accused of being involved in infractions of college regulations or any other action which might tend to bring a bad name to Western Michigan College. The purpose of the Board is to take the disciplining of students out of the realm of the administration and afford every man the opportunity of standing in judgment before a jury of his peers.

Officers for the year were: John H. Frazer, Chief Justice; Burke Campbell, Associate Chief Justice; Robert Wathen, Jerry Halbert, Jack Christian, Ron Kasher, and John Young, Judges; Jim Keats, Court Recorder; Kurt Butters, Process Server; Dean J. Towner Smith and Dr. Mike Sebaly, Advisors.

An annual event "Across The Tracks" brings students of Western and Kalamazoo College together. Each year, the colleges alternate as hosts.

The voice of the students at Western speaks primarily through this organization. Student Council has for years been handling both gripes and constructive suggestions from any student who wants to bring them in. While this in itself is a big order to fill, Council has many other duties to perform: Western's Inter-Dorm Radio, the K-College-Western "Across The Tracks" dance, the Brown & Gold Fantasies, elections, and the Leadership Conference. In addition, Student Council takes care of grants-in-aid for deserving students, the mountainous job of compiling the Western Way and various other charitable services. Even with all these items, Student Council manages to tri-sponsor several events with A.W.S. and Men's Union, such as the social calendars, the Christmas Dance, and our adopted Korean lad.

Hats off in particular to the members of this year's Council who were successful in bringing about the reorganization measure to even better serve the students.

The Men's Union is an organization of all male undergraduate students. Representation on the Men's Union Board is accomplished at the time of the all-school elections by vote of the male students.

The various activities of the Union include such events as the annual Snow Carnival and the Cotillion. The aims of this organization are to boost college athletic programs, promote cultural aspects of the Union and to plan and supervise various social events on campus. Week night dances and open houses are some of the ways the Union accomplishes these aims.

ASSOCIATED WOMEN STUDENTS —

One of the annual affairs sponsored by the Associated Women Students is the AWS Daisy Chain honoring the graduating Senior women.

Associated Women Students is the second largest organization on Campus, being composed of all women students. They strive, "to unite the women students in order to meet their social needs, to uphold high social standards, to afford leadership opportunities, to encourage scholastic achievement, to sponsor philanthropic activities, and to actively identify the organization with International A.W.S."

Freshman Week found the girls active with their annual tea and the all-campus carnival. They continued through the year with the annual twirp dances and the popular Christmas chocolate.

In November, the girls honor their fathers with the annual "Dads' Day"; and in May, their mothers are feted on campus.

The year closes with the June Breakfast, the traditional Daisy Chain of freshmen honor women, and the "tapping" of women to receive the coveted honor of joining the senior women honor society, Arista.

The annual Arista June Breakfast is an important event for Junior women, for it is then that from among the Junior women the new members of Arista are chosen.

This honorary society for Senior women has as its main purpose the honoring of women outstanding in leadership, service, and scholarship. Junior women possessing these qualities are chosen to be next year's Arista members.

Organized in 1940, Arista hopes someday to be affiliated with Mortarboard and are working towards that goal.

Arista girls are busy girls, but they find time to entertain alumnae of Arista at a coffee during Homecoming and give a chocolate for honor sophomore girls. This year the girls also sold carmel apples at the college carnival and Frosh carnival. Stop by at the Christmas Chocolate and you will be greeted by an Aristan as they serve as hostesses at this annual event. You may also find them ushering at the February graduation exercises.

Western's chapter of the Newman Club Federation has been around since 1945. It represents the 925 Catholic students on campus.

The Club is intended to provide religious, intellectual, and social enrichment for all Catholic students. The religious aspect of life is developed by regular communion breakfasts. During Exploration Faith Week, Father Joseph D. Connerton spoke to the group. Speakers and panels bring out the intellectual side, and socially, Newmanites are some of the busiest people around. They have their annual Mardi Gras, an all-students dance, hayrides, Christmas caroling, a Senior Banquet, and a Homecoming Breakfast. Meetings are held the first and third Wednesdays at St. Augustine Church.

It promotes faculty firesides, study groups, attendance at ecumenical conferences, and the publication of Agape, a paper of Christian student opinion.

Charles F. Cooley, Minister for the Methodist Students, gives full-time attention to the organization and oversees its fulfillment of its purpose—to create a supporting group of mutually strengthened students who will uphold the Christian ideals and conserve the highest human values.

The Bronson girls showed their creative and artistic ability by taking second place in the most-beautiful division of the Homecoming parade floats.

The Bronson Nursing School endeavors to provide to selected young women with a desire to serve, a well balanced program of clinical instruction through an approved curriculum under the guidance of the best qualified faculty available. Such a program is intended to develop knowledge, skill and judgment in the individual student so as to enable her to render a professional quality of nursing care to the sick in the hospital and in the home. Western's faculty assists in the educational program along with physicians and instructors from the Bronson School.

As a highlight of the holiday season, the Bronson nurses burst forth in chorus at their Christmas sing.

The social calendar is well-rounded with the monthly dances, the various class and school parties, and the two annual formals.

Also, for those interested in music, the school has an excellent choir which sings at civic organizations, service clubs, student nurse festivals, and which gives a Christmas Concert every year.

A student association makes it possible to initiate recommendations which are the result of student group thinking. And the hospital chaplain assists in making religion an integral part of the girls lives.

This year the girls showed their active participation in campus activities by winning second place in the Homecoming Float Contest.

Also, in 1957, a new student nurse dormitory will make the housing facilities equal to that of any college.

DER DEUTSCHE VEREIN

The German Club, better known as Der Deutsche Verein to its members, has been a very active and busy club since its organization on Western's Campus in 1925. Many social and educational activities are carried on by the members who are second year German students or exceptional first year students.

Some of the club members are German students who are studying here on campus while others are students merely interested in becoming better acquainted with a practical knowledge of Germany, its people and its language; this being the general goal of the club.

Along with plays, films and trips to the German-Round table, which meets every Wednesday in the Union Building from 6:00 to 7:00, help the club's goal become reality.

Other important functions carried on by Der Deutsche Verein include the homecoming party, Christmas party, and an annual May picnic.

Those chosen to lead this group were Darrell Best, President; Frances Helling, Vice-President; Donald Spitzer, Secretary; Alice Miller, Treasurer; Jack Petzold, Publicity. Continuing their important role as sponsors were Miss Mathilde Steckelberg and Dr. Herman Rothfuss.

If you happened to be in the Union Building between 6:00 and 7:00 on any Tuesday, you would probably hear a group of students talking to each other in a language you might not understand. It would be Spanish! Members of the Spanish Club meet every Tuesday at the Spanish round table and special programs are held the first Tuesday of every month.

This club combines education with fun and promotes opportunities for students interested in Spanish to not only learn the language better but to learn more about the country and its history. Their projects and activities are carried on with this purpose in mind.

Dan Premo headed this group as President with Darcia Dawe and Judy Skillman the two Vice-Presidents; Jane Reamer was Secretary, and Shirley Anderson was Treasurer. Sponsoring this group of Spanish enthusiasts were Mr. H. B. Jones and Miss Myrtle Windsor.

The AKPsis acquired this attractive house during this school year in which eight of the active members now reside.

Gamma Tau chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi is in its second year at Western Michigan College. It is affiliated nationally and is one of eighty-three chapters located at schools of business administration throughout the nation. The objects of the organization are to further the individual welfare of its members, to foster scientific research in the fields of commerce, accounts, and finance, and to educate the public to appreciate and demand higher ideals therein.

The organization is composed of men in the business administration curriculum. It endeavors to promote a professional and social program for the benefit of its members. Tours through industrial concerns and talks by business people compose some of the chapter's activities which also include sponsoring Career Days on Western's campus.

Officers for this year are; Jerry Graham, President; Jerry Stone, Vice-Pres; Dean Williams, Secretary and Jerry De Ryder, Treasurer.

Western's Men's Debate Team began this year's season respectfully by placing well in the TKA regional conference at Purdue University, November 4. This initial conference was followed by the Albion Novice Tournament and the junior Varsity Tournament at Northwestern University. Western made a return trip to Purdue on February 11 for the annual Purdue Novice Tournament.

The climax of the season came with the Michigan State Intercollegiate Speech League Debate Tournament in which affirmative awards were won by John Vitek and Dave Lyons. In the negative A Division awards were won by Bob Morsink and Bill Fleming. In the B by Dick Bommersbach and Forrest Roosa. Western also sent John Vitek and Bob Morsink to the regionals March 10. Mr. Charles Helgesen was the Director of the 1955-56 team.

Many honors were won by Western Michigan College Women in debate and intercollegiate competition and discussion during 1955-56. Twelve college women participated in this program which brought several distinctive honors to Western.

Patricia Dunn, a freshman, won a Wachtel plaque for superiority in discussion by placing fourth highest out of seventy-five delegates participating in the Midwest Regional Tau Kappa Alpha Conference held at Purdue University November 2-3, 1955.

At the MISL Novice Debate Tournament held at Albion College on November 19, Western women debaters lost only one of their twelve debates. Ursula Knop, Patricia Dunn, Lulah Smith, Marilyn Savage, Patricia Pyrnes, Cathy Voelker, Mary Lou Spitters, and Carol Drennen represented Western at this tournament.

On December 2, at the Junior Varsity Debate Tournament at Northwestern University, the negative team of Lu Smith and Marilyn Savage won honors by being one of the three undefeated teams. All Western women debaters received superior ratings (Patricia Byrnes, Cathy Voelker, Patricia Dunn). A mixed team, Pat Byrnes and Dick Bommersbach, won three out of four debates.

TS'AI LUN

Ts'ai Lun is an association of students of the Pulp and Paper Technology curriculum which saw its installation on this campus in the fall of 1951. The purpose of Ts'ai Lun is threefold; to further education in the art and science of papermaking, to promote social contact among the students of the paper industry, and to further the development of sons engaged in courses of the curriculum. The organization meets every third Tuesday of the month in room 103 McCracken Hall and many of the meetings are dedicated to speakers and discussions on technical and practical aspects of the paper industry along with social diversionment for the membership.

This organization has brought much recognition to the college and the paper technology department from the industry which is so well centered in the Kalamazoo River Valley. The members frequently participate in industrial field trips, hear speakers from various mills, and on the social side they feature a fall picnic and term recognition banquets.

Officers this year were Thomas Murwin, President; James Lewis, Vice-President; John Yonker, Secretary; and Curt Thies, Treasurer.

"Oh, no! not a girl with muscles" was a cry often heard by the girls of Phi Epsilon. However, the petite young ladies majoring or minoring in Physical Education who compose the organization have succeeded in reducing this cry to an insignificant whine. Realizing the value of a wider and more intelligent understanding of physical education, the members bend their efforts in this direction. Emphasis is also placed on loyalty to one's team and the rules of good sportsmanship.

Social activities are not forgotten, however, as the "W" Club can well attest. The annual volleyball game between the two organizations is a highlight, as is the spring house party for the gals alone.

Two philanthropic projects are also included on the yearly agenda, as well as outside speakers and other special events.

Sponsoring the group this year was Miss Crystal Worner. Officers were: Ann West, President; Joan Stout, Vice-president; Kaye Wright, Secretary; Mary Vandenberg, Treasurer; and Sally Bruggeman, Historian.

ASSOC. OF CHILDHOOD EDUCATION -

The Association of Childhood Education is an organization dedicated to promoting understanding and submitting actual experiences of the practices and problems of teaching the elementary grades. Every third Thursday of the month the Association meets to discuss, by lectures and informal discussions, the experiences which an elementary teacher will have to cope with during his or her actual teaching years. This year the organization is composed of approximately one hundred and twenty members.

Above is shown Association members listening to the lecture, 'Nature in the classroom', a typical style of lecture which the club sponsors for the informative value in teaching the elementary grades.

FUTURE TEACHERS

The founding of the Future Teachers Organization took place in 1938. The main purpose was then and is yet; to provide a common interest ground for those going into the teaching profession. The common interest ground is that of learning more and gaining new skills in helping and guiding children in their formative years.

This is an important task which the members have undertaken. The programs are many and varied. Guest speakers with professional experience often point out some of the more important "tricks of the trade", while many of the latest educational movies and panel discussions help to supplement these lectures. Field trips are also looked forward to as both pleasurable and informative for our budding young teachers. Acting as "principal" this year was Joy Corbot Higgins while Dawn Miller, Carolyn McMullen and Mairon Ward Served as her administrative staff. "Supervisors" were Mr. Carl Snow and Mr. Carp Cooper.

The Industrial Arts Association is an organization comprised of all students majoring or minoring in the field of industrial arts. Its purpose is to increase the interest in the field of industrial arts and to propose better teacher training for the public schools.

The organization has the project of making panels for all the groups on campus and the highpoint of the year occurs in the spring, — the annual dinner-dance held in the Walwood Ballroom.

As a result of the 1955 elections the following people took office: Lyle Layer, President; Don Burk-lund, Vice-president; Bill Dennis, Secretary; Dick Strudgeon, Treasurer.

Sponsors for this year were Mr. Plough, Mr. Farnan, Mr. Hutchings, Mr. Bendix, and Dr. Feirer.

The club promotes professional interest and good fellowship among the members in regards to original and practical experiences in the home economics field. The club meets every second Wednesday of the month in McCracken Hall, West Campus, advised by this year's sponsor Miss Betty Taylor.

The club sponsors various activities throughout the school year including the Annual Bazaar, December 8, a Xmas Party which was held for the first time this year, and an annual Senior Recognition Banquet held in May. O. T. CLUB

An outstanding organization on Western's campus since 1945 the O. T. Club has been invaluable to the students interest in O. T. as a career. The purposes of this group are two-fold: To provide service and recreation for the community and to provide opportunities for students with a common interest to meet and make friends. Programs are presented with these ideas in mind and many discussions as to the professional value of various materials and methods are held among the group.

Social activities are regarded as a "must" and the annual Fall and Spring picnics along with the Christmas sale satisfy this need. Heading the organization in 1955-56 was Nancy Aurit as President; while Sally Harris, Donna Oldenburg and Carolyn Miura served as Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer respectively. Important committees were handled by Frances McMullen as head of social affairs; Miriam Dickerson, Programs; Yoshi Miyasato and Christine Buck, Publicity. Sponsors were Miss Audrey Marr and Mr. Dean Tyndall.

PRE MED CLUB

Students with a bend toward pre-medicine, pre-dental, pre-nursing and medical technology find the Pre-Med Club one of their biggest helps. This organization was founded in 1941 and has availed itself to promoting keen insights for the individual considering one of the above fields as a career ever since that time.

In arranging to supplement the student's academic courses; programs are planned around guest speakers and films with group discussion following.

But all is not work with the Pre-Meds, so in the Spring the members disguise themselves as "Cavorting Cadavers" and go a-picnicking.

Leading the group this year were Donn Milks holding the gavel while Kay Lewis banged out the minutes and held the key to the cash box. Lending their dignified presence as sponsors were Mr. Merrill Wiseman and Mr. Harry Lawson.

The College Choir is perhaps the busiest organization on campus. What with all their local performances, this select group of mixed voices found the time this year to perform at the Conrad Hilton of Chicago for a special convention of educators. Locally, under the direction of Dr. Elwyn Carter, they present a Festival of Arts concert, a Christmas program, a spring concert, and participate in the annual high school gathering held on campus. From the number of performances and the caliber of them, one would think the College Choir was all work . . . it isn't for they find time for parties and a climactic spring picnic.

Officers for the past year have been: Dick Miller, president; Sue Howes, secretary-treasurer; John Weber and Mary Alice Tabor, librarians.

The spirit of Western is reflected in no organization as it is in its band. Homecomings, pep rallies, and games just wouldn't be the same without this group of musicians under the directorship of Mr. Leonard V. Meretta. In addition to all their other performances, the group presents a concert on the green each spring, this year honoring the late Edwin Franko Goldman, famed conductor-composer who was to have appeared on campus for the concert. The organization sponsors also a January concert and travels throughout southwestern Michigan making proud the name of Western.

Officers for the past year have been Fred Peryer, president; Roger Dehn, vice-president; Janice Markle, secretary-treasurer, Dick Swinsick, drum major; Sonie Sloan, Grace Zimmerman, Frankie Harper, and Esther Hyaman.

ORCHESTRA

Western is proud of its orchestra made up of talented students regardless of their major. Each year, under the baton of Mr. Julius Stulberg, the group presents two concerts, one in the fall and the other in the spring. This year, they participated in the Composers Symposium and took to the road for several appearances in this area. Their colorful season ended with the Honors Convocation and a gala banquet. Mr. Stulberg was assisted by Mr. Phillip Mason, concert master.

MADRIGAL SINGERS

A special group of students make up the Madrigal Singers the only qualification being talent and an acute interest in madrigals . . . lyric poems sung without accompaniment. The art of madrigals, developed in the 16th century, holds a strange fascination for the members of this distinctive organization

. . . a fascination they share with the campus whenever they perform. Under the leadership of Mrs. Dorteia Sage Snyder, the group travels through-out the area and highlights each season with their Festival of Arts performance. Easter and Christmas always finds them extra hard at work.

Since Western's founding there has been music here. Men's Glee Club has been active on our campus for more than fifty years, and during this time they have continued to bring consistently good programs of music to the student body and the Western Michigan area.

This organization is open to all Western men who have vocal talents and are interested in taking part in the many activities of the group. The men this year not only sang on campus but took to the road twice to present concerts in other areas.

Under the direction of Mr. Jack J. Frey and headed by Harrison McGee, President, and Carl Sattelmaier, Secretary-Treasurer, they continued to provide the opportunity for Western men to sing the very best of music.

WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB

A variety of performances and social events make up the calendar for the Womens Glee Club each year. This group of coeds under the direction of Mrs. Dorthea Sage Snyder added to their all ready demanding program an appearance at the newly instigated AWS Rose Tea. Other programs of the group this year included the AWS Christmas chocolate, Concert in May, and tours to near-by areas.

Officers for the group were: Elaine Reinhart, president; Jo Prybylski, vice-president; Judy Hatfield, secretary; and Kathy Dvorak, treasurer.

Fathers of W Club members were treated to a luncheon at Western's Union as a Dad's Day Celebration.

Two points the easy way! These buxom lasses seemed to think the team needed some help and so they added two points to the W Club's score.

One of the more zealous of the two sultry W Club cheerleaders gets into the act. Something seems to be slipping in more ways than one.

The W Club was formed on Western's campus in 1920 and has thrived throughout the years. The club consists of letter-winners in the various major sports and membership is by election. The objectives of this organization are: To promote the interest of good citizenship, cleanliness and fair play in athletics, to raise the general standard of athletics by means of intercollegiate meetings, to develop and maintain a better standard of scholarship among athletes and to help stimulate a high standard of sportsmanship on and off the campus.

The main activity of the year is the annual 'Faculty vs. W Club' basketball game held in the Men's Gym. This year the W Club avenged the loss of last year and beat the Faculty 24-23 in a sudden death overtime. Other activities include picnics, Dad's Day Luncheon and the selling of football and basketball programs to benefit the W Club Scholarship Fund. President for this year was Jerry Austin assisted by Vice-Pres. Jerry Ganzel, Secretary Bob Soderman and Treasurer Tom Cxyz. Sponsors were Ed Gabel and Jack Petoskey.

The Water Sprites, a synchronized swim group, was organized on campus in 1947 to promote interest and provide the opportunity for those who are interested in participating in water activities.

Their basic activity is the yearlong preparation for their annual spring water show, a gala program including scenery, props, music, and perfected synchronized swim displays.

Officers this year were Bonnie Wheeler, president; Joann Stollsteimer, vice-president; Kathryn Hildebrand, secretary; and Sydney Buelow, treasurer.

The Water Sprites are looking forward with high expectancy to the day when their activities will be held in the new seven-lane pool now under construction.

WESTERN WIVES

In 1948 wives of Western students decided they deserved more from living on campus than cooking and cleaning. It was then that the Western Wives Club came into being so that the women could get acquainted, promote friendship, and enjoy social aspects of campus life.

Since their founding the drab past has been forgotten and replaced by a bright whirl of activities which make their years at college memorable ones. Events this year included a fall dance, and a spring dance given in conjunction with the Western Vets to benefit the outfitting of the playgrounds at the Elmwood Apartments. Along with their recognition services for the "graduating" members they held a Harvest Banquet in November, complete with fashion show. Colorful food booths at both student carnivals and the annual spring cookie sale displayed their culinary ability, while their float at homecoming showed their artistic talents.

Under the leadership of their officers: Helen Lennon, Phyllis Swayze, Donna Roberts, Delores Morelli, Phyllis Sweet, and Leatha Hildebrandt many advances were made, including the acquisition of ID cards enabling them to attend student events at a reduced cost. Sponsors this year were: Miss Elizabeth Lichty, Mrs. Leonard Gernant, and Mrs. Betty Householder.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

Under the leadership of their president, Audrey Weed, the Alpha Chi's filled their college life with a variety of sorority activities. First on the list this year was a booth in the student carnival. Following almost too close for comfort was Homecoming, with an alum banquet in honor of Founder's Day and a float.

Member Joan Randall was selected for one of the Homecoming queen's court.

The new plan of fall rush brought twenty new pledges into the group, so in December the actives entertained their pledges with a slumber party.

Several "firsts" were awarded to the Alpha Chi's, both last spring and this year. They were top in scholarship for the sororities. For Sorority Sing last year, for which they were awarded first place, a whole fleet of Alpha Chi "sailors" sang "There is Nothing Like a Dame."

The Girls were especially pleased this fall to have an important letter presented to their chapter by the Kalamazoo Alumnae president. The letter was written by one of the founders of the first Alpha Chi Omega chapters.

Other officers for the year were: Barbara Jones, vice-president; Mary Vegors, secretary; Kathy Wood, treasurer. Sponsors were Mrs. R. F. Snyder, Miss Margaret Feather, and Miss Dorothy Sedlacek.

The ladies of Alpha Chi turned creative for this booth in the annual Snow Carnival.

Row 2: Maribeth Pearsall, Mary Wilkins, Mary Drinkard, Joyce Ragle, Joan Sarles, Shelia Masters, Connie Holmes, Joan Bayne, Martha Hawley, Clare Heywood, Ruth Eltzroth.

A variety of activities filled the A O Pi's calendar this year. They were kept quite busy with numerous social functions and service projects.

In November the girls sponsored their annual "Campus Couple Fling". With a number of candidates to choose from, the dancers chose Shirley Page and Hank Wurster as their "Campus Couple."

Dads and Mothers were both entertained at luncheons on their respective weekends, and the AOPi's eight new pledges were also entertained by the actives at a slumber party.

A big event for this year was State Day. The Kappa Rho chapter here at Western were the hostesses for the day.

For a fund-raising project the girls made pert 1 little dolls and animals for their Christmas Toy Sale.

Officers for the year are: Joy Hartwein; Pres., Margaret Mannix, Recording Sec; Helen Beckwith, Corresp. Sec; and Terry Weitzel, Treasurer.

Another fund-raising project for the year was the Brownie Sale held in the Administration Building.

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA

The ASA's were off to a "banging" good start this year with their "Dent-a-car" booth at the Student Carnival. The novelty of it brought the girls a third prize. Immediately following freshman week activities, the Alpha Sigs sponsored their annual "Firemen's Ball".

Next on the calendar of events came Homecoming, with a float and alumnae coffee in honor of Lou Ann Scheppers. At the sorority's National Convention this summer, Lou received the Frost Fidelity Award, which is in recognition of sorority loyalty and service to the local college chapter and campus.

With the strains of Ralph Marterie's music for homecoming still floating in their heads, the Alpha Sigs prepared for a busy rush schedule. At the end of rush, the group welcomed nineteen new pledges into the Beta Psi chapter.

Dads were entertained at a dinner during their weekend at a "Barbershop" party, and Mothers were entertained at a luncheon in the spring.

Participation in Zeta Delta Epsilon's Variety Nite brought the Alpha Sigs a prize for second place for their skit, "Eiffel Zigali".

Last spring's activities in Greek Week found the Alpha Sigs teamed with the TKE's. They were given second place for their skit.

The officers for the year were: Mary King, President; Ann Mansfield, Vice President; Ruth Linsey, Recording Secretary; Carol Billow, Corresponding Secretary; Ruth Hanes, Treasurer. Sponsors were Mrs. R. Anderson, Mrs. Linsay Farnan, and Mrs. Towner Smith.

The Delta Zeta's realized that all efforts put forth in sorority life are definitely not in vain. They returned from their annual State Day at Michigan State with the honor of being the outstanding chapter in Michigan.

With this honor as a shining example, the DZ's plunged into many varied activities this year. Almost immediately after classes started, they sponsored their annual dance, "Buttons and Bows". Following this, work began on their prize winning float and the coffee for alums. The girls were especially pleased when Heather Harrison was elected for the Homecoming Court.

Soon after Homecoming the alums turned the tables and entertained the actives at a party. The DZ's also did some entertaining in the form of a party for their nineteen new pledges.

In promoting the Christmas spirit, the group entertained children from the Constance Brown organization for the hard-of-hearing.

Spring activities included participation in Sorority Sing and Greek Week.

Leading the group were: Cathy Crawford, president; Pat Carpenter, vice-president; Nancy Peterson, recording secretary; Sandra Beaver, corresponding secretary; and Ann Maher, treasurer. Sponsors were Mrs. Clayton Maus, and Mrs. Charles Means.

OMEGA CHI GAMMA

All off-campus girls are eligible to join Omega Chi Gamma, the only off-campus sorority existing at Western Michigan College. The Omega Chi's strive to promote closer contacts and strong friendships among the many girls living off campus. Through informal meetings and parties the many girls acquire closer ties and friends that they might not obtain as those who live in the campus dorms and are members of the various social sororities.

The Omega Chi's participate and sponsor many varied activities throughout the school year. Such as an annual informal dance, teas and parties, dinners for underprivileged children and the annual display of organization's floats in the Homecoming Parade.

Officers this year are the following: Marcia Battjes, President; Sue Saum and Rita Bugh, Vice-Presidents; Lois Sonnenberg, Corresp. Sec.; Jo Ann Purcell, Recording Sec.; Arlene Shon, Publicity; and Esther Cekola, Treasurer.

Carol Bolinki is crowned Queen of Omega Chi's Bumble Bee Bop held in the Union Ballroom Oct. 16.

Shown below are some of the Omega Chi's paying their dues to Treasurer Esther Cekola while other club officers look on.

The beginning of the year at Western was filled with many Greek sponsored activities. Among these was Sigma Kappa's dance, "Neptune's Nocturne". The Dancers were put in the mood with a number of aquatic decorations and John Mills was crowned "King Neptune".

The Sigma K's participated in Homecoming by entering a float and entertaining alums at a coffee. Hearty congratulations were extended to Karlyn Zick, when she was chosen one of the five girls for the Homecoming Court.

The true Thanksgiving spirit was felt by all when the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity joined the Sigma K's in their annual Thanksgiving scavenger hunt for canned goods. These were later presented to needy families in Kalamazoo. Another philanthropic project was undertaken at Christmas. The girls collected and sent gifts to the children at the Maine Seacoast Mission.

Participation in all Greek sponsored activities, parties with fraternities and their annual house party were all included in the calendar of events for the Sigma Kappa's.

The group functioned this year under the leadership of: Janet LaPlante, president; Nadine Sikorski, vice-president; Mary Ann Knooihuizen, recording secretary; Rhea Appleyard, corresponding secretary; Joan Kilburn, treasurer. Sponsors were: Miss Mathilde Stekelberg and Mrs. Louis Saye.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

Top honors went to Sigma Sigma Sigma in several different activities this year. With Grass skirts and gold ring ornaments adorning them, the Tri Sigmas started the year's activities with a first prize for their booth at the Student Carnival. A "circus" theme brought two of the honors, the first one being a prize for their Homecoming float, which had a merry-go-round for its center theme. The second award was presented for their skit, "Just Clowning Around" in the Zeta Delta Epsilon's Variety Nite.

Aside from winning prizes, the Tri Sigmas also sponsored two philanthropic projects. Proceeds from their Topsy Turvy Dance were donated to the Robbie Page Memorial Fund for polio research. At the dance, Heather Harrison was crowned Topsy Turvy Queen.

A Christmas party for underprivileged children was the other project undertaken by the girls.

At the traditional Panhellenic Ball, the group's pledges were presented. They were the honored guests at a banquet preceding the dance.

Luncheons, coffees, sales, and the annual house-party completed a full schedule of events for the year.

The activities for this year were under the leadership of: Barbara Rice, President; Nancy Simmons, Vice-President; Carol Wolverton, Recording Secretary; Lilian Bobcik, Corresponding Secretary; and Paula Sager, Treasurer. Sponsors were Mrs. Theodore Carlson and Mrs. Willis Dunbar.

'Jungle Rhythm' was the theme of Tri-Sig's Freshman Carnival concession and won them the coveted first prize.

It was a chilly day but these happy-go-lucky Tri-Sigs didn't seem to notice as the task of paddling their wayward canoe kept them working.

The distinction of being the newest national sorority on campus goes to Theta Upsilon. In February, 1955 Alpha Pi Beta, a local sorority on Western's campus, became affiliated with this national sorority. The affiliation brought a flurry of social activities connected with the installation of a new chapter. The girls all agreed there is something very exciting and thrilling about being a charter member of a new chapter.

This fall found the girls actively participating in all the various Greek activities.

Homecoming activities for Theta Upsilon included a float in the parade and an alumnae coffee and in order to support their national philanthropic project, the Theta Upsilon's sponsored a dance.

Spring activities were centered around a luncheon for Moms on their weekend and participated in Greek week. The annual houseparty concluded the Theta Upsilon's busy year.

Officers for the year were: Barbara Brye, president; Gloria Wise, vice-president; Deloris Crittenden, secretary; Mavis Berry, treasurer. Sponsors were: Mrs. Paul V. Sangren and Mrs. Robert Ring.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

The Panhellenic Council serves as the governing body for sororities on Western's campus. The Council is composed of two representatives from each sorority and faculty sponsors, and one sponsor from City Panhellenic Council. The council coordinates some sorority activities, regulates others, and cooperates with the Inter-Fraternity Council in sponsoring 'Greek Week'. Sororities and the Council are responsible to the Student Activities Committee through their Subcommittee.

The Council meets every Thursday at four o'clock in the afternoon in the Panhellenic House on the East Campus. Officers for this year are Doris Anne Overstedt, President; Mary Alice Lugar, Vice-President; Marilyn Hamilton, Secretary; and Carole Gierman, Treasurer. Sponsors for the council are Miss Elizabeth Lichty, Mrs. Catherine Chapman and Miss Mary Ellen Read.

The Inter-fraternity Council is the governing body of Western's eight fraternities. The representatives from the individual social fraternities meet weekly to advise and govern the affairs of the organizations separately, and to work together on mass projects. Together with the Panhellenic Council, IFC staged the gala fifth annual "Greek Week." It is at this time that fraternities and sororities combine to compete and participate in daily events.

The Council also directed freshman convocation, mass rush each semester, and had charge of the homecoming queen contest.

D. Ned Hovater served as this year's president, Al Voelker was Vice President, Don Brems, Secretary, and Ron Kopicko, treasurer.

Growing in strength in accordance with the Greek movement on campus, the IFC proves itself to be a valuable contributor to ideas and activities at Western.

The brotherhood of Kappa Alpha Psi is truly a fine one. The members of this organization can well boast of it's achievements both in past years and present times.

Since KAP's inception eight years ago the brothers have consistently contributed outstanding performers to Western's Varsity Teams. Add to this their excellent record of participation in intramural sports and the Greek week games and you can well see how active the KAP's are. The Homecoming activities and their own dance along with a frantic pledging season are also things which do not escape their eyes.

President of the group this year was Grover Dotson; Gerald Benford was Vice-President; while Phillip Loving and James Walker filled the offices of Secretary and Treasurer. Sponsor for the brothers was Mr. L. O. Baker.

DELTA CHI

Hailing from their new address on South Street this year is Delta Chi Fraternity. Organized in 1950 as Sigma Alpha Delta, they are completing their first year as Delta Chi, having affiliated nationally in January, 1955. Their purpose is to encourage a high scholastic average and promote a well-rounded social program.

Delta Chi's major project at present is their new house, which they are renovating to provide facilities to house every member of the fraternity. Four floors of space are available and are quickly being put into shape through cooperation of the entire group.

Social functions are also an important aspect of fraternity life, and Delta Chi certainly provides a varied and interesting program. Their Christmas formal is one of the highlights of the school's social functions. Parties with sororities, acting as host for A.W.S., pledge formals and banquets, and serenading sweethearts round out their well-filled social program.

Officers for the year were: James Boyd, President; Eugene Wallace, Vice President; Jack Humphries, Recording Secretary, Tom Fricke, Corresponding Secretary, Dick Sandel, Treasurer; Don Yardly, Sergeant-at-Arms; Bob Wathen, Social Chairman. Sponsors for the year were Fred Hoag and Frank Savage.

Vivacious queen, animated octopus and Delta Chi's ingenuity gave us "The Lost City" for Homecoming.

They honored Joan Randall with a serenade

The "Delt Sigs", as the men from the house on South St. are known, hold a high place among the fraternities on Western's campus. Their aims are to provide their brothers with a well rounded college life and a look at their agenda will bear this out.

Competition in intra-mural sports, where they are always high in the standings, plus a very real and avid interest in student government only begin two of their many activities. Social affairs include, banquets, parties, closed dances, serenading and the very popular Carnation Ball, a high spot on Western's social calendar. The Greek week and Homecoming activities are also places where the Delt Sigs are well known. The fraternity scholarship race is not ignored either and plays a most important part in a brother's college life. A busy schedule certainly but the men in Green and White are up to it.

Officers for this year were: Don Hoyt, President; Dave Sinclair, First Vice-President; Jerry Roach, Second Vice-President; Duane Varner, Secretary; and Wes Knapper, Treasurer.

Serving the group as sponsors were Mr. Robert Wetnight, Mr. Andrew Luff and Dr. George Hilliard.

One of the newest national fraternity members on Western's campus are the proud possessors of the golden heart. From 1951 until November 19, 1955, the organization was known as the Sigma Epsilon. A banquet-dance followed their initiation into the ranks of Sigma Phi Epsilon, third largest fraternity in the U. S.

Even with all the preparations that had to be made for this event, the Sig Eps still found time to take prizes in both float and lawn displays during the Homecoming festivities.

Social functions for the year included the annual "Heartbeat" dance, sorority parties, serenades along with numerous closed dinners and dances.

Officers for the year were Donald Button, Pres.; Bill Purdy, Vice-Prés.; Jerry James, Treasurer; Dick Bloomfield, Secretary; Larry Johnson, House Manager.

Sigma Tau Gamma is the oldest social fraternity on Western's campus and has just celebrated its 41st year on the hilltop. Established originally as Phi Sigma Rho, it became known as the Forum and then in 1941 it became affiliated with Sigma Tau Gamma, a national social fraternity.

SIGMA TAU GAMMA

The fraternity has as its chief purpose, to establish friendship, brotherhood and scholarship within the chapter as well as among their fellow Greeks. The main activities for the year were the sponsoring of a Homecoming float, parties celebrating various holidays and hosting sororities, and treating many of the needy boys of the city to entertainment and refreshments during the year.

Officers were George Altenberger, President; Julian Visser, Vice-President; Bruce McClain, Secretary and Joseph Chrystler, Treasurer.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON

The crowning of Homecoming Queen Sally Sleight, the visit of bandleader Buddy Morrow, and the annual Ides of March dance were a few of the outstanding highlights which marked a very successful year for Tau Kappa Epsilon.

John Mills handed over the president's gavel to Richard Reed at mid year. Other new officers installed at that time were: Jim Slis, vice-president; Dick Trudell, secretary; Fred Wood, historian; Chuck Mattheussen, chaplain; Ron Preston, treasurer; Dave Budde, pledge trainer; and Don Fink, sergeant-at-arms.

A Christmas party with children from the juvenile home was again held this year at the chapter house and something new was added when the Tekes had a pizza party for members and their dates. For the second consecutive year, the men of Tau Kappa Epsilon captured the IFC Sing Trophy.

Sponsors for the past year were Dr. William Van-Deventer and Dr. G. G. Mallinson. Housemother's duties were carried out by Mrs. Thera Garvison.

Buddy Morrow is presented a check for the March of Dimes by TKE Dick Reed. Mr. Morrow was a dinner guest of the Tekes prior to the Battle of Bands benefit.

"Tip A TKE" was the theme of the Tau Kappa Epsilon booth at the Snow Carnival Fun Fair.

Greek Week brought the caveman out of local Tekes for their Skit Night endeavor.

March 24 was the day when the old Zeta Delta Epsilon fraternity changed its name and became the 72nd chapter of Delta Upsilon.

Delta Upsilon, founded in 1834, is the oldest Fraternity in the United States stressing the idea of non-secrecy. The aims of the fraternity are to promote friendship, the development of character, the diffusion of liberal culture, and the advancement of justice.

The oldest dance on campus, the Sweetheart Ball, and the annual Variety Night program are the Delta Upsilon's contributions to the social calendar.

Fraternity functions include the annual steak and mush dinner, the semi-annual pledge banquets, Homecoming and Cotillion banquets, and frequent parties with the sororities.

Officers for the latest national on campus and the oldest fraternity on South Street are: John Samczyk, President; Charles Krupp, Vice-president; Gary Scoville, Secretary; Don Lightfoot, Treasurer; and John Bugenske, House Manager.

One proof of Western's expansion is the addition of a new social fraternity onto its campus. The Phi Sigma Epsilon Colony was introduced at Western Michigan College in the spring of 1955 and a year later, February 18, 1956, the Phi Gamma chapter of the forty-six year old national was installed here.

Yes, thirty-two young men will remember the Saturday when formal installation of their fraternity took place. A banquet followed with such guest speakers as Dean Smith and officers from the national and other fraternities on campus. A dance at the Burdick Hotel climaxed the memorable day.

This very enthusiastic and determined group is dedicated to promoting a closer bond among men students of higher educational institutions, so that they might enter into more intimate fellowship with those dedicated to education.

Now that Phi Sigma Epsilon is officially national, the men of Phi Gamma chapter are putting their big plans into action with a semi-formal dance in the spring and a national conclave the next year.

Elected to the big task of leading this new organization were William E. Wright, President; Wayne Van Remortel, Vice-President; Larry Lancaster, Recording Secretary; Wilmer Koster, Treasurer; and Charles Burkett, Corresponding Secretary. Dr. Edward O. Elsasser and Francis Allen acted as sponsors of the group.

In Memoriam

Not all our memories of 1955-1956 at Western will be pleasant for toward the end of the first semester, news came of the death of Bob Brennan, pre-law student.

Bob was a native of Chicago and Oak Park and came to Western as a veteran with a commendable record. While serving in Korea, he received a Certificate of Achievement "For Meritorious Service in connection with military operation against an armed enemy in Korea . . ." He was also awarded the Meritorious Service Medal, the Presidential Unit Citation with two oak leaf clusters, the Combat Infantry Badge, the Army of Occupation Japan, the Korean Service Medal with three bronze stars, the United Service Medal and the Sigmund Rhee Medal.

His record here on campus was also commendable. He was active in the organization of the Western Vets and served as its president up to the time of his death. He was also a member of the Zeta Delta Epsilon fraternity.

ATHLETIC BOARD

Seven members, chairmaned by Mr. M. J. Gary, made up this year's Athletic Board . . . an organization responsible for the formation of policies concerning awards, schedules, and eligibility as pertains to Western's intercollegiate sports. Members consisted of Mr. John W. Gill, Mr. C. B. MacDonald, Mr. William V. Weber, Mr. Robert B. Trader, Mr. William J. Berry, and student council president, Richard Hestwood.

The work of the Athletic Department is proving to be of exceptional value to the College not only pertaining to sports but also to the general welfare and good name of Western. This has been done by the exceptional work done in building sports programs up thusly opening opportunities for more participation, establishing a strong feeling of competition and good sportsmanship and the double duty of coaching and instructing the men of Western. Mike Gary served as Director assisted by John Gill.

Coach Jack Petoskey's varsity footballers fought a hard uphill battle through the 1955 grid season. What looked to be a promising season at the beginning proved not quite enough to buck the rough and more experienced teams which played the Broncos.

Injuries to key players over the season proved the crippling blow to coach Petoskey and the Western gridgers. Western had counted heavily on quarterback Jerry Ganzel to lead a group of young and comparatively inexperienced sophomore backs but Ganzel suffered a severe knee injury in the opening game against Great Lakes and never returned to top form throughout the remaining games.

Shifty halfback Bud Breed, another veteran, was also looked on as a key man in Western's ground attack, but he was struck down about halfway through the season and was hampered by injuries throughout the last month of play. This left much of the running load to be carried by fullback Chuck Nidiffer and halfbacks Bob Long and Dave Lillie.

Three were many bright spots too, for Western football fans. Linemen Jimmy Walker and co-captain Jim Devine were stalwarts in a tough Bronco forward wall opening holes for Bronco backs and stopping the menacing charges of the opposing backfields.

Ironically enough, Western's lone win during the season came over a team which had previously been unbeaten. This feat came about in a 13 to 0 whitewashing of Western Reserve. The only tie of the season came against Great Lakes in the season opener, 13 to 13.

Talk about being smothered! One can only wonder how the luckless Washington ball-carrier feels who is hidden beneath this pileup.

The 1955 winners of the Western special football awards were Roman Juzwiak, Kalamazoo, who received the Most Improved Player Award and Charles Nidiffer of South Bend, who received the Most Valuable Player Award.

Other letter winners on the Western Varsity were; Edward Anderson, Jerry Austin, Richard Barnhill, John Berryman, Lawrence Bonifield, Paul Bos, Buryl Breed, John Chalapis, Thomas Czyz, James Devine, Jerome Ganzel, Duane Gebbon, Robert Geiger, Robert Long, Robert Mason, Don McMann, Patrick Soderman, Robert Stevens, James Walker, Michael Wooden, Richard Zimmerman, and managers; Charles Beadles, Eugene Jakubiak and William Furstanaw.

Bronco grid followers can look for more promising things in the fall as Coach Petoskey expects to bring up quite a bit of good material from a promising Freshman squad who turned in a winning season. With the forming of the Bronco Booster Club, an organization which has contact with more than twenty thousand Western alumni, we can expect bigger and better things in the coming years of sports here on Western's growing campus. And anyone, including coach Petoskey, will probably give you good odds that the Bronco football future will grow and progress with the school.

Bob Soderman turns in a beautiful tackle on a Washington University player as he skirts Western's leftend.

Here's a good view of Western's stands as a huge crowd turns out for the season opener against Great Lakes.

And the opener gave the fans a thrilling encounter which saw the Broncos knot the score against a powerful Great Lakes squad.

There was plenty of action behind the scenes too at the Stadium. Head trainer, Ed Gabel was kept busy at the training table as bruises and hard bumps were plentiful. The Bronco's training staff proved time and again the value of experienced and competent trainers to insure the good health and condition of the players.

Another group, usually pushed behind the scene, is Western's highly rated marching band. These flashy brown and gold marchers bolstered the team's morale and gave the students and other spectators some truly fine half-time shows throughout the football season.

Ed Gabel is shown here in one of his familiar roles, taping up a bruised muscle.

Here the band displays the big 'W' and it's framed too! This was often the remark made by Western students after a narrow defeat.

The record of Coach Tom Slaughter's 1955 freshman grid squad brings better hopes for an improved football future to Westernites. Coach Slaughter's aggregation compiled a 2-1 showing and gave a good display of power and precision in all three contests.

Working effectively from a T-Formation the Frosh rolled over Grand Rapids Junior College, 35-0, stung the Toledo Junior Varsity, 19-0, and were edged by a rugged Bowling Green Frosh squad, 14-13.

Standouts in the backfield were John Ritchie, Don Gill, Roger Avers, Bill Taft and Loren Krieger. Captain and guard Bill Karpinski led a hard-charging forward wall that included Bob Lett, Bob Fraik, Dick Thompson, Gary Hollenbeck, Duane Earley and Dan Survillas.

The Homecoming festivities for 1955 proved to be a great success with dancing at the Sock Hop amid a turmoil of lost shoes and endless, unwavering lineups of entering and exiting dancers to the more serene and orderly Homecoming Dance; a good football game which saw our Broncos taste defeat but brightened by sunny skies and a enjoyable parade; and endless parties and reunions with the grads, Greek brothers and sisters and old and new classmates.

The Broncos were again a close runner-up, behind Notre Dame, in the Central Collegiate. The NCAA meet found the Dales aggregation landing a very respectable eighth place in sub-freezing temperatures. This, incidentally, is the highest place ever won by a Western cross country squad competing in NCAA.

Romping to 13 wins in 22 games during the 1956-1957 campaign, in MAC play, Coach Joe Hoy's varsity basketball squad can look back on a season that witnessed three new scoring records as well as several outstanding team and individual player performances.

For Coach Hoy, this past season will be remembered as probably the most successful that the Bronco coach has had since he began as Western's regular basketball mentor. His nucleus of seven men, were the stalwarts of a well-balanced attack. Such players as Fred Corbus, Bob Diment, Jack Smith, Roger Neuman, Jerry Mitchell, Al Barkeley and Larry Pedracine formed the "Core" of the Bronco's scoring punch and tight defensive play that was characteristic in many of the games played throughout the season. It was an especially memorable year for forward Jack Smith. The 6'5" Junior from Grosse Pointe suddenly "found the range" after the season was underway, and turned out to be a scoring demon for the Broncos. His 445 points is a new seasonal record here, as is his game average of 20.2 points. His single game high of 37 points against Great Lakes broke Hal Stacy's mark of 35 made a year ago.

Fred Corbus

Western's employment of the fast break wouldn't have been much without the services of guard Jerry Mitchell, whose playmaking ability and occasional long shot were instrumental in the Bronco attack. The return of Bob Diment from the service added considerable scoring punch during the first half of the season, and although the blonde forward slumped somewhat toward the end of the year, he rates an applause for a good, all-around performance. Roger Neuman provided the "fire" which often brought the Broncos from behind, helping them to win many ball games.

Some of the better team showings through the past season were against Marshall, the MAC champion, when the Broncos surprised the West Virginians with an 80 to 70 upset on Western's floor. Other highlights were provided in wins over Northwestern, Miami, Valparaiso, Loyola of Chicago, and Great Lakes.

Placing third in the MAC with a 7-5 mark, Western fared well against conference teams. Besides single wins over Marshall and Miami, Bronco victims included Bowling Green, Ohio twice, Kent State, and Toledo. One of the real big accomplishments for the Hoymen this season was a prized 72 to 67 win over Northwestern in the second game of the season.

Nominated to the all-conference second team were forward Bob Diment and center Fred Corbus.

Lost to the team for the next year will be Corbus, Diment, Len Eason, and Al Barkeley, but with several good prospects coming-up from the Frosh squad of the past season, and the return of four other veterans, chances for another successful season for Coach Hoy's charges look very promising.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

Under the able tutelage of Coach Tom Slaughter, the Freshman basketball squad compiled an impressive record of seven wins against just four losses.

Sprinkled with an ample balance of height and speed, the frosh could claim victories over such reputable foes as the Toledo and Valparaiso J. V. teams. Coach Slaughter's outfit reach the "century" mark twice during the season, in whipping the Hope J. V's., 100 to 33, and in downing the Grand Rapids Calvin J.V. squad, 104 to 79.

Ed Blair, a River Rouge product, compiled 100 points in the final five games of the season to lead the team with a 20 point average. Captain-elect Laverne Brown of Scotville was the season's high scorer however, with 176 points in 11 games for an average of 16 per game.

VARSITY BASEBALL

The 1955 Bronco team whizzed through a rigid Mid-American Conference schedule with a perfect 9-0 mark, and lost only three games during the entire season. They walloped Ohio State and Alma for District Championship and then went on to Omaha and the College "World Series."

There is much to be said about the 1955 edition of the Western Michigan College diamond squad. First of all, it is only fitting that a tribute be paid to the team's coach, Charley Maher. Here is a man who, being taught in the "old school" of Baseball technology, has continually built his teams year after year on the idea that you must have complete balance to have a winning ball club. He looks for the fielder as well as the hitter. Maher's '55 team had a pretty good dosage of both. His outfield of Nagel, Lajoie, and Johnson was rated as the best in college ranks last year by sportswriters all over the country. His infield was young and inexperienced, but like any Maher-coached infield, all it needed was a little time, and it would develop into a solid defense against enemy grounders and line drives.

Maher's pitching staff was built around such capable hurlers as Roger Schwartzkoff, southpaw Gary Graham and Roger Eggers, with such men as Jim Smith, Gene Frechette and Don Finnefrock standing by to help when needed. This crew of six hurlers combined efforts for an over-all seasonal and tournament record of 21 wins against just four losses. Schwartzkoff and Graham together mustered 15 of those victories, Roger tallying eight and Gary pulling down seven.

Western over the years has proved to be a formidable opponent for Big 10 teams, and this past season was no exception. Coach Maher's aggregation amassed a total of nine victories over Big 10 schools over the year, including four wins over Conference champion Ohio State, two of which were in NCAA tournament play. Other Midwestern victims included Iowa, shaded 1 to 0, Wisconsin, beaten twice, Michigan once, and a comeback 15 to 10 decision over Notre Dame, in which the Broncos wiped away a 8 to 0 deficit to win in 13 innings.

NCAA TOURNAMENT

Major League teams left their mark on the Bronco campus by signing such men as outfielders Bill Lajoie and Al Nagel and pitchers Gary Graham and Miki Schwartzkoff, who, as a Sophomore, would have had two more full years of eligibility with Coach Maher's outfit had he decided to remain in school.

Another interesting note is the number of All-American mentions gained by the Bronco team. Bill Lajoie and Gary Graham were both solid selections on college All-Americans, while Nagel and Lajoie were unanimous selections on the Mid-American conference team.

FRESHMAN BASEBALL

Compiling a 9-1 record, Western freshmen baseballers once again swept through to a successful season last spring. Coach Gill's junior Broncos played five teams, with two games against each opponent. The opposition was provided by Grand Rapids Calvin, G. R. Junior College, Flint J. C., Henry Ford Community College and Central Michigan. The only loss of the season came in the tail end of a doubleheader with Central's Chippewas.

--- VARSITY TRACK ---

Western's track team came through with another impressive season in 1955 under the capable tutelage of Coach George Dales. The thinclads rounded into form slowly during the indoor season as they dropped close dual meets to Central Michigan and Marquette. However, they bounced back to finish second behind a powerful M.S.U. team in a triangular meet at East Lansing. Michigan State rolled up 92½ points to 49-5/6 for the Broncos, while Northwestern was a distant third with 33-1 6. In their last scheduled meet of the indoor season they swept to an easy win in a triangular meet with Chicago and Bradley, piling up 62½ points to Chicago's 42 and Bradley's 25½. The squad then traveled to South Bend where they finished third in the third annual Central Collegiate Conference Indoor Championships. The meet was won by the host school, Notre Dame, with 55½ points. Michigan Normal was second with 31½, Western third with 26, Marquette fourth with 25½, while Drake, Central Michigan, Bradley, and Wayne rounded out the entries.

Len Eason broke Western's shotput record last year putting the shot 48 feet, 8 inches.

Once out under the bright sunlight the Broncos started clicking. They ran away from Ball State, piling up 88 points to the Hoosiers 39. They celebrated that victory by tromping Purdue 76-53. One week later the Broncos made it three in a row by edging Central Michigan 63-59, thus avenging an indoor defeat at the hands of the Chippewas. Western's next outing was a dual meet with a strong Marquette squad, in which the Broncos suffered a close 62-60 defeat. This loss was followed by an $84\frac{1}{3}$ — $57\frac{2}{3}$ defeat administered by Miami of Ohio, who is beginning to make a habit of winning the Mid-American Conference Meet. However, Western bounced back to win the last triangular meet of the season, scoring 70 points to better Bowling Green's $58\frac{1}{4}$ and Cincinnati's $26\frac{3}{4}$. The Broncos went on to show fairly well in both Drake and Ohio Relays, before competing in the M.A.C. track meet.

The one mile relay team which placed third in the Chicago Daily News Relays included John MacKenzie, Dick Wedel and Byron Skinner standing; and Don Richard and John Hudson, bottom.

The 1956 two mile relay team is pictured here and consists of Don Richard, Bill Pyle, John MacKenzie and Byron Skinner.

In the M.A.C. meet the Broncos finished strong second with 73 points, as compared to Miami's 85½. Bowling Green was third with 44½ points, followed by Ohio U., Western Reserve, Kent State, and Marshall, in that order.

Two new records were set during the season: one by John MacKenzie, who ran the half-mile in 1:54.6 (this is also a Mid-American Conference record), and by Len Eason, who put the shot 48 feet 8 inches for a new school record. John Hudson also ran brilliantly in the short dashes, piling up many points. He also won the 60 yard dash in the Indoor Michigan A.A.U. meet and the C.C.C. meet at South Bend, and won the 50 yard dash in the Cleveland Knights of Columbus meet. The mile relay team, composed of Byron Skinner, Bob Bailey, John MacKenzie, and Val Eichenlaub, also took a first in the C.C.C. pole vault championship by soaring 13 feet four inches.

FRESHMAN TRACK

The 1955 Frosh Track Team established many new records under the able leadership of George Dales during last season. In the Michigan A.A.U. Al Dixon set a new record in the Novice 600 with 1:15.4. The 880 Relay Team set a new school record of 1:33.8. April 30 in the John Bos Relays the Frosh took 12 of 18 first places with John Warder setting three meet records. On May 9 the Frosh topped Bowling Green and Cincinnati and one week later whipped Notre Dame Frosh 70-2 3 to 59-1 3. The little Broncos also whipped Ferris Institute, established two records in the Outdoor Mich. A.A.U. and won the M.A.C. Triagraphic Championship for the second straight year topping Miami and Bowling Green.

VARSITY TENNIS

Western's tennis team came up with another astounding year in 1955 as they dropped only two matches out of sixteen. One of the losses was to a strong Michigan squad by the score, 5-4. The other administered by Tulane University led by one of the top seeded amateurs in the country, Ham Richardson.

Coach Ray Sorensen had an excellent squad to work with including three men of 'number one' caliber Ed Foster, Jim Farrell and Jack Vredevelt. The squad boasted an amazing 86-9 singles record and a doubles record of 76-14. Included in these victories were ten shutouts over such powers as Vanderbilt, Detroit University, Cincinnati and Notre Dame.

Jim Farrell shared the Number One spot during 1955.

In the Mid-American Conference Meet held on the campus of Ohio University, the Bronco Netmen did equally well as they rolled over the other squads into first place with 17 points followed by Miami with 13. Marshall and Bowling Green were in a distant tie for third with three points each.

Fans saw a quick blur as Jack Vredevelt lets go a smashing drive during a home match.

GOLF

Western's Varsity Golfers turned in an excellent season under the guidance of Coach Roy Wietz emerging with a 10-4-1 record as compared with a losing record of 5-8 the year before. They topped such powers as Wabash, Miami, Wayne and Valparaiso.

Coach Wietz did a good job of rebuilding after losing all four of his 1954 lettermen. The Broncos finished in fifth place in the Mid-American Conference with Ohio taking top spot. Lettermen for the year were Ray Bovee, Fred Osmer, Stan Fleece and Chester Faram.

CHEERLEADERS

The Bronco Cheerleaders have had a successful season. They didn't lose a game! The athletic board presented each member with a new monogrammed sweater. To complete the uniform, each girl was given new tennis shoes. Western's student body contributed a few more stronger voices. As the season progressed, the Bronco athletes were bolstered to greater heights by many faithful supporters in the grandstands. An attempt was made to give Western a card section. This plan was defeated by the stronger "battle of the suitcases."

The new cheerleaders are chosen at a published date set during the spring. They are judged by an appointment board, consisting of Mr. Robert Trader and two campus representatives (usually the Presidents of Men's Union and Student Council). Awards are given to those cheerleaders meriting them, at the close of the year.

Here the cheerleaders give a sample of their brand of physical support which they give at the varsity games.

Physical education majors and minors experience various exercises in the men's gym such as the trampoline, horizontal bar, the rings and playing badminton.

MEN'S PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The Physical Education Department at Western is responsible for the general physical education program for all male students. All male students not engaged in The ROTC unit are required to secure three semester hours in physical education.

General physical education classes cover most indoor and outdoor sports giving a wide variety of exercises and general knowledge concerning various gym, field and track sports. Majors and minors in this department are, of course, given much more specialized courses including the fundamentals of the sport they wish to teach and a wide variety of physical exercises and games that could be used in teaching physical education.

Balance, strength and coordination are employed exercising on the rings.

The Women's Physical Education Program at Western supplies all female students with the necessary physical exercise to enable them to be more physically fit and able to live a healthier life while at school. Building a strong body aids the building of an alert mind. Women going into the teaching profession especially those interested in the physical education field are supplied with information which they will use in planning a physical education program for the students in the schools where they will eventually teach. The health, educational, and recreational aspects of physical education are all considered in providing instruction in all types of sports, both individual and team categories.

Badminton is one of the more popular games during the many physical education classes. Here several students are learning the fundamentals of the game in the women's gym.

WOMEN'S PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Badminton, tennis, volleyball, gymnastics and golf are but a few of the games and exercises experienced in the various physical education classes. The girls are introduced to the fundamentals of the games and then instructed more fully by observation, supervision and the actual participation. All majors and minors participate in special courses designed to give them more detailed information and experience in the instructing of special games and sports as well as a well-rounded general course.

Warm weather brings the girls out of doors for classes and special instructions in outdoor sports. Here the class is practicing the elements of good driving during a golf class.

Life saving and general swimming instructions add to the curriculum of the women's physical education department.

Rounding out the curriculum, the department offers very popular courses in swimming, archery, and modern dance. And out of these are formed two of the most active organizations on campus . . . the Modern Dance Club and the Water Sprites. Each group presents an annual show to exhibit the skills gathered over the year.

Department directors include: Miss Margaret Large. Mrs. Helen Brown, Miss Eleanor Douglass, Miss Joette Hains, Miss Doris Hussey, Miss Crystal Worner, Miss Isabel Crane, and Miss Mary Bottje.

Activities

One of the most interesting and exciting assemblies brought the Stone-Camryn Ballet Company to Western.

ASSEMBLIES

Assemblies, that something extra that rounds out a college education, were highly diversified this year thanks to the efforts of the assembly committee. Among the programs students savoured a tasting of ballet, of theatre, and of foreign affairs.

The schedule of programs began with the visits paid us by Brigadier General Claude Dewhurst who spoke on coexistence. Other lectures to follow were "Books on Profile" with Virginia Peterson and "The Russian Problem" with Louis Fischer.

The dance came to us with the Stone-Camryn Ballet Company of Chicago and their highly original program centered around the choreographical interpretation of "The Shooting of Dan McGrew."

The famous Louis Fischer presented a lecture on "The Russian Problem."

The theatre made two contributions to the fare of assembly programs by bringing to campus the Dublin Players' production of Shaw's "Pygmalion" and "Two's A Company," an interpretive reading program with Edith Atwater and Albert Dekker.

Members of the assembly committee were: Mr. Frank Householder, Dr. Zack York, Dr. George Bradley, Miss Alice Le Fevre Carolyn Fox, Jim Bowen, Pete Cooper, Pat Mastej, and Pat Arnold. Mr. Thomas Null served as chairman.

Brigadier General Claude Dewhurst visited us in October.

Albert Dekker and Edith Atwater presented "Two's A Company."

The highlight for the men of R.O.T.C. comes each spring with the Military Ball . . . a regal affair reigned over by a queen who becomes an honorary Cadet Colonel. Though plans for this year's ball were well under way at press time, the names of the queen and her court were stamped TOP SECRET. Such was the case with last year's royalty who are honored here . . . Queen Lura Sullivan, Jo Barinotti, Barbara Rees, Mary Enos, and Jan Hildreth.

Adding to the festive mood of the Holidays is the annual Delta Chi Christmas Ball.

DANCES

AWS Twirp Semi-formal "Autumnal Equinox" gave coeds the bidding.

Very few weekends pass but what several dances dominate the campus scene . . . in fact when the dorms hold their formals, some five or six balls are going at once. Tradition singles out the Cotillion and the Homecoming Ball but the decision as to the most important dance is difficult to make.

Dispersed between Homecoming in the Fall and Cotillion in the spring, the campus jumps to such dances as the J-Hop, the Topsy Turvy, Buttons and Bows, and a variety of others, each cleverly named.

Sigma Phi Epsilon instigated something new with their Heartbeat Dance this year . . . the selection of a sweetheart, a move they hope will become a tradition for them and the campus.

The men of Delta Upsilon are proud of their dance and its theme, The Sweetheart Ball, as is evidenced by their well-made decor.

The curtain no more than lowered and work began on this year's show. Soon the second semester was upon us and excitement mounted as the cast was selected, the music written and the settings designed . . . then politics reared its ugly head and the show folded. However, there is still a group on campus determined to keep the ten year old tradition alive for Western.

DRAMA

The 1955-56 theatre season opened with "The Crucible," a highly intense drama centering around the Salem witch-hunts of 1692. Under the direction of Dr. Zack York, this production put the stamp of "professional" on Western's theatre. This stamp was again inked in reviewing Faber De Chaine's first directing chore for Western with the sophisticated and delightfully entertaining "The Second Man." Having carried their audiences to the peak of theatre the department selected for their final production, "The Lady Is Not For Burning", a brilliant Climax . . . thus marking the 1955-56 season as one of the campus theatre's greatest.

Directors Dr. Zack York and Mr. Faber De Chaine check last minute details.

Christopher Fry's "The Lady's Not For Burning" featured Dorothy Coyne, Robert Barrett, Thomas Cassidy, Lynn Salisbury, Douglas Andrews, Donald Bozarth, Peg Wallace, Herman Saitz, and Gayanne Slye.

The entire celebration was complete with the choosing of a reigning god and goddess, picnic and ball games, races and pie eating contests, topped by the brilliant Greek ball, 'Moonlight on Mount Olympus', held in the Union Ballroom.

BROWN and GOLD

This is the forty-fifth edition of the Brown and Gold Yearbook, a tradition that has carried us from stately white pillars to cubistic towers. It represents hours and hours of work on the part of the staff, whose main objective has been to record the highlights of the 1955-56 school year at Western. This is a job that starts before the fall term opens and is not complete until students receive their personal copies. In fact, the initial steps for the forty-sixth Brown and Gold have already been taken.

The work of the Herald Staff is an interesting and an everlasting one. The business staff constantly solicits advertisements and worked out the budget. Photographers are sent out to capture campus highlights on film, staff artists run through their routines, and reporters write and type furiously to meet the deadlines. These are the tasks that make the Ty House buzz from September to June.

The work on one issue is no more than completed when the staff members busy themselves with the next publication. Between Fridays are many hours of hard, hard work . . . reporting, writing and re-writing, lay-out, picture taking and developing, typing, proof reading, and last minute additions (always a plague). And after the frenzy, the nervous tension, there comes that well deserved feeling of accomplishment to the entire staff when they see the final results of their efforts in print.

Makeup is handled by Elaine Rasmussen, John Provancher and Mary Jane Montello.

Business reports are handled capably by Pete Herber, Arlene Moore and Norm Osborn.

Final proof reading is one of the more important chores on the Herald staff and is done here by Barbara Fiedorek, Sally Hockwood and Gordon Moerdyk.

The circulation department is kept busy counting and distributing the weekly Herald. L. to r.; Polly Cooper, Nancy Alkema, Charlotte Mason, Nancy McCandless, Roselene Rose, and Pat McCandless.

Advertisers

To the Advertisers

On behalf of the staff of the 1956 Brown and Gold I would like to gratefully acknowledge the cooperation and good will of our advertisers.

Through them a better book is made possible and many new friends, readers and customers become aware not only of the various products and services of their community but also the close contact among subscribers, advertisers and the students of our city and college.

Good Luck GRADUATES!

Today the goal you aimed for more than a decade ago is at hand. For most of you this is a fitting climax to years of study and hard work — graduation. Some of you may choose to continue your formal education, others will go into industry or the business and professional world. But wherever you go and whatever you do the experience you had, the knowledge and understanding you have acquired, and the principles you have lived by during the past four years, applied to your new endeavor, will make your life richer and fuller.

Can You See the future in their eyes?

We think it's there

THE FUTURE of this country . . . this community . . . and this company is all tied up in the optimistic outlook of today's young people. It is difficult to prophesy what tomorrow will bring. But this we know, it is young people like you whose lives will be most affected. "Peace in our time" may become a reality. Scientific advancements will become commonplace. And improved medical practices will stretch man's life cycle considerably. The future is yours. Keep your eyes on it. And keep your eyes on the future of the Sutherland Paper Company. We're in this thing together.

Graduate School of Service

This Telephone Building in Kalamazoo, like all the others across the country, stands as a symbol of service to the community and to the nation.

For college men and women, it is a "graduate school" well worth considering. For the telephone business never stands still. It takes good people to provide good telephone service, and they are constantly moving ahead, finding new ways for even better, faster means of communication. Learning never ceases.

From college to career is an easy, natural step when that career is with the telephone company. We'll be glad to discuss opportunities with you at any time.

Reflection of good taste . . .

A fine paper like a fine mirror, adds its own character to every image. Thus, good taste in printing begins with the selection of paper — paper just right for the occasion.

Celluprint Enamel reflects the quality and prestige that the yearbook staff of the Brown and Gold regularly incorporate in this annual.

This outstanding paper is made in Kalamazoo, Michigan by the St. Regis Paper Company. Quality in St. Regis' broad range of printing papers begins with the growing of trees in St. Regis' forests and continues through exacting control of every step of production to assure — paper just right for every occasion.

Birmingham & Prasser Company of Kalamazoo, Michigan, carries a complete line of fine papers for fine printing . . . paper like Celluprint Enamel on which this outstanding annual is printed.
